Organizations recognize the valuable role that business can play in the longer-term protection of human rights. All our Group Companies are committed to respecting the human rights of our workforce, communities and those affected by our operations wherever we do business (including our contractors and suppliers).

- Maintaining positive legal compliance with applicable constitutional and regulatory human rights requirements
- Undertaking an iterative, due diligence process, the focus of which is identifying, assessing, and managing potential risks and impacts.
- Aligning our existing policies, processes, and activities with our commitment to respect human rights, including those that apply to labor practices, engagement with indigenous people, land acquisition, supply chain, and security management.
- Promoting awareness of the human rights with employees at various levels of our operations through training and communication
- Engaging with stakeholders in an inclusive, transparent and culturally appropriate manner on human rights concerns related to our business activities.
- Valuing diversity, equal opportunity and the need to consider the rights of vulnerable groups such as indigenous peoples, women, migrant workers and other minorities • Prohibiting all forms of harmful child labor, forced / trafficked labor, discrimination, and harassment.
- Prohibiting any contribution to armed conflict or human rights abuses in conflict-affected and high-risk areas
- Prohibiting interference in any way with the establishment, functioning or administration of workers' organizations or collective bargaining
- Respect the right of all workers to form and join a trade union of their choice without fear of intimidation or reprisal, in accordance with national law.
- Providing access to remedy by resolving grievances in a timely and culturally appropriate manner
- Developing goodwill, creating sustainable employment, and stimulating economic opportunities in the communities that host our activities.
- Establishing clear accountability by assigning adequate resources and responsibilities for effective management of human rights risks.

- Continually improving human rights performance by sharing good practices and learnings, setting, and reviewing targets, and monitoring, reporting, and disclosing performance.
